

Some Recent Words of Pope Francis

'Tonight before falling asleep, think about when we shall all return to the streets. When we hug again. When shopping together will seem like a party. Let's think about when we can share a coffee and small talk and pictures. Be close to each other.'

We can think about these present times when it will only be a memory. Normal times will seem like a beautiful gift. Every second will be precious to us. Sunsets and laughter. See you soon and take courage!'

'The bells are ringing for me and my.....well, not quite, girls rather.....our NHS friends and Carers.'

Did you hear the St John's wedding bells joining everybody else clapping and making a noise on Thursday evening at 8pm?
